

NETASQ SEISMO labeled "Innovation Product 2008" in Germany

1600 vendors competed for the Innovation Award 2008 of Initiative Mittelstand, the IT Advisor for medium and large enterprises of the German publisher Huber Verlag für Neue Medien.

Paris, June 20th, 2008 – Since 2006 Initiative Mittelstand assigns to the most innovative and ME-suited products and solutions the Innovation Award. In the edition 2008 the jury, composed by journalists, experts and scientists, awarded a total amount of 150.000 € to 33 companies based in the German speaking countries, divided into 33 categories, from Consulting to Web 2.0.

In addition, the jury awarded with the Innovationsprodukt 2008 label a further small selection of solutions.

NETASQ SEISMO, the real-time network analysis and vulnerability management tool, embedded in NETASQ's best Intrusion Prevention Technology (ASQ), competed in the category IT Security and convinced them through its innovative character, usefulness for mid sized enterprises and adequacy to their needs.

Dominique Meurisse, NETASQ's Executive Vice President comments: "We feel honored to receive the Innovationsprodukt 2008 label, recognizing the innovation character of NETASQ SEISMO. Also the fact that we received this recognition in germ will support us in our strategy to extend our market presence in germ together with our partner PSP GmbH."

NETASQ is presenting SEISMO and announcing its second generation product at the Spring Events on April 22nd in Düsseldorf, 23rd in Frankfurt and 24th in Munich.
